A COMPREHENSIVE OUTLOOK ON DEVELOPMENT DYNAMICS

There is a high demand for rentals, driven by the proximity to prestigious schools in Dubai. Within a 10-minute drive, residents can reach prestigious schools like Jumeirah College, English College, North London Collegiate, and Kent College. Additionally, the inventory of units available for sale is limited.

Anticipate a surge in property values with the recommencement of The Meydan One Mall construction. This development will feature 550 retail stores, 180 dining spots, a medical center, a hypermarket, and a variety of entertainment and leisure choices.

Located just 12 minutes from Downtown Dubai, Dubai Creek, and Al Khail Road, as well as a convenient 15-minute drive from Dubai International Airport (DXB), with direct access to Dubai Al Ain Road.

The potential for land appreciation is significant, given the thriving sports-focused facilities, including the central hub of Dubai's cycling community, access to horse racing, diverse gyms, paddle courts, and golf courses in the area.

In the center, there is a complex arrangement of overlapping polygons, including a large triangle pointing upwards and several smaller, irregular shapes that create a sense of depth and architectural structure. The overall effect is minimalist and modern.

CASE STUDY

The building is fully occupied with a waiting list to rent

Apartments boast designed kitchens, appliances, and large glass windows

The building features excellent amenities and versatile retail space

Injazzat Residence, situated nearby on Meydan Avenue, adopts a similar architectural style to which we are planning to execute. Noteworthy for its superior quality, the structure features a tasteful facade and ample glass windows, standing out in its surroundings. The building offers excellent facilities, including a rooftop infinity pool and a well-equipped gym. The apartments boast high-quality appliances and wardrobe fittings, showcasing contemporary and functional designs.

Injazzat Residence's quality distinguishes it from neighboring buildings, resulting in full occupancy and a waiting list for rentals. Opportunities to purchase within the building are rare, and when available, prices command a premium due to its sought-after status.

INVESTMENT
DISCLAIMER

This document is an informative memorandum and not a formal prospectus, indicating that it is intended to provide general information about Alsallal Developments and is not an official legal offering. It’s important to note that this document does not constitute an offer or solicitation to purchase securities. Instead, it’s designed to inform potential investors about the opportunity, allowing them to decide independently. Investments in Or wah Developments proposals, like any investment opportunity, carry inherent risks. One of the primary risks is the possible loss of the principal amount invested, which can be influenced by various market and economic factors. Therefore, potential investors are advised to thoroughly assess these risks and conduct their due diligence before making investment decisions.

1 | No Assurance of Performance. When evaluating the investment opportunity with Alsallal Developments, it is crucial to understand that the past performance of their projects is not a reliable indicator of future results. This principle is a standard caution in investment, underscoring the unpredictable nature of real estate markets and economic conditions. While Alsallal Developments may set forth specific investment objectives, there is no guarantee that these objectives will be achieved. Market dynamics, regulatory changes, and other external factors can significantly impact investment outcomes. Therefore, investors are advised to conduct their comprehensive assessment, considering both the merits and risks of the investment. This independent evaluation is essential for making an informed decision, aligning with the principle of due diligence in financial investments.

2 | Legal Compliance. Alsallal Developments complies with the UAE Commercial Transactions Law (Federal Law No. 50 of 2022) and the UAE Civil Transactions Law (as amended by Federal Law No. 26 of 2020). These laws form the backbone of commercial and civil activities in the UAE, governing transactions and ensuring fair and legal business practices. Additionally, Alsallal Developments adheres to the specific regulations issued by the Dubai Land Department and the Real Estate Regulatory Agency (RERA), which are crucial for real estate operations in Dubai. This compliance underscores Alsallal Developments’ dedication to upholding the highest legal and ethical standards in their business operations, ensuring transparency and reliability.

3 | Regulatory Approval. The investment opportunity in Alsallal Developments has not received formal approval or disapproval from any government agency or regulatory body in the UAE. This includes major financial regulatory authorities such as the Securities and Commodities Authority and the Central Bank of the UAE. This statement does not imply any non-compliance or irregularity; rather, it highlights that certain types of investments do not necessarily require explicit approval from these regulatory bodies. It underscores the need for investors to perform their own due diligence, assessing the merits and risks of the investment without relying on implied endorsement from government entities.

4 | Governing Law. This memorandum and the investment it describes shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the United Arab Emirates.

5 | Foreign Investment. Foreign investors in Alsallal Developments are subject to UAE Federal Law No. 2 of 2015 on Commercial Companies (as amended), which outlines the legal framework for commercial entities, including aspects of foreign ownership and investment. Additionally, Decree No. 22 of 2022, known as the Property Investment Funds Law, provides specific guidelines for investments in real estate funds, which may be pertinent to foreign investors. These laws ensure that foreign investments align with the UAE’s regulatory environment, promoting a transparent and secure investment climate.

6 | Risk Factors. Investing in real estate and development projects inherently involves various risks. These include market fluctuations, where values can shift due to economic trends, demand and supply dynamics, and other market forces. Regulatory changes also pose a risk, as alterations in laws or policies can impact project viability or profitability. Environmental factors, which can range from natural events to changes in environmental regulations, also play a significant role. Project-specific risks, like construction delays or budget overruns, are also important considerations. Investors need to be aware of these risks as they can substantially affect the outcome of their investments.

7 | No Liability, No Loss. Alsallal Developments and its affiliates specify that they are not liable for any losses that investors might incur due to factors beyond the company’s control. This includes market changes, which can significantly affect the real estate sector, and regulatory policies, which can alter operational and financial landscapes. Other unforeseeable factors that can impact investment outcomes also fall under this disclaimer. This statement is a standard practice in the investment field, emphasizing that while Alsallal Developments strives to manage its projects effectively, it cannot be held accountable for external variables that could adversely affect the investments.

8 | Accuracy of Information. Alsallal Developments has made reasonable efforts to ensure the accuracy and completeness of the information provided in this memorandum. However, it’s important to note that the company does not guarantee the absolute accuracy or completeness of this information. The real estate market and associated industries are subject to rapid changes and developments, which can affect the relevance and accuracy of the information provided. Given these variables, investors are strongly advised to conduct their own due diligence. This independent research and analysis are crucial for making informed investment decisions, allowing investors to personally verify the data and assess the viability and potential of their investment in Alsallal Developments.

9 | Amendments and Updates. Alsallal Developments reserves the right to amend or update this disclaimer without prior notice. The latest version will be binding.
